POTATO-DAHLIA NEW CREATION
California Gardener Has Succeeded in Crossing Two Plants.

By Associated Press
EUREKA, Cal., Dec. 21.—A Hickman, an aged gardener of this city, has succeeded in crossing the Irish potato with the dahlia, the combination producing a species of potato which is believed to be far superior to that found ordinarily on the market. With the new potato one may have flowers for the decoration of his home, and when the plants have reached maturity, potatoes for his dinner.

The main value of Hickman's potato-dahlia comes from the fact that the plant follows closely the dahlia type and hence should be immune from the blight, the great potato scourge of the Northwest. The new potato is said to have a flavor far superior to that of the ordinary potato. It bears heavily.

To Buy Farm Loan Bonds.

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to purchase not exceeding $100,000,000 of farm loan bonds each year for two years, upon the recommendation of the farm loan board, in a bill favorably reported today by the House Banking and Currency Committee.

U. S. WILL CONDUCT
WAR FOOD SURVEY

H. S. Jacks, Secretary of Commercial Club, Gets Plans of Operation.

TO LIST ALL STOCK

All Merchants Not Receiving Sheets Are Urged to Apply at Stations.

The principal methods for ascertaining the food holdings of dealers, manufacturers, warehousemen and other distributors of foods, which are now under way in the form of a campaign conducted by the Department of Agriculture, were received today by H. S. Jacks, secretary of the Commercial Club.

The food survey information will be gathered by means of food schedule sheets which all merchants and dealers in foods and food materials are asked to fill out. Mr. Jacks now has all information concerning the survey including a facsimile of the food schedule sheet.

This bureau is conducting the food survey campaign under the direction of Congress and the Secretary of Agriculture which is known as the War Food Survey. The survey, in purpose and intent, will show the supply of food and food materials held in the United States December 31, 1917.

Commercial Club to Act.
At the request of the survey bureau, Mr. Jacks will bring the matter before the Commercial Club which represents the interests of the local merchants and dealers. Approximately 100 different foods and food materials will be investigated.

The bureau will send food schedule sheets to practically all dealers in foods or food materials and all holders of such commodities in lots larger than family supplies. Schedules are expected to be in the dealers hands by January 2, 1918. Firms failing to receive schedule sheets are urged to write immediately to the Bureau of Markets, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Many Questions Asked.
The schedule sheet asks such questions as the nature of your business, whether it is a corporation, partnership or individual business, the value of stock on hand, December 31, location of stock, subsidiary establishments, and in addition an exact inventory of all foodstuffs on hand and in transit.

Schedule sheets may be obtained in Missouri at the following places:

Office of Federal Grain Supervision, 310 Postal Telegraph Building, Kansas City; Bureau of Markets, Rooms 203-205 Produce Exchange Building, Kansas City; Bureau of Markets, 657 Livestock Exchange, Kansas City; Bureau of Markets, Rooms 400-401 Customhouse, Third and Olive streets, St. Louis; Office Federal Grain Supervision, 413 United States Appraisers Stores Building, St. Louis.

PRISONERS HELD IN HOLLAND

15,000 German and British Captives Will Receive Training There.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press)
THE HAGUE, NETHERLANDS, Nov. 30.—Seven to eight thousand British prisoners-of-war from Germany are to take up their quarters at The Hague and in the neighborhood, constituting a fresh strain on the sorely-tried housing accommodation of the city and its environs. A like number of German prisoners from Great Britain are to be quartered in other parts of the country, and preparations are afoot to provide for them.

Both Great Britain and Germany have sent representatives to co-operate with the Netherlands authorities in the matter. Special hospital accommodations are being provided for the numerous invalids, as only a limited number of cases can be placed in existing civil and military hospitals. The British and Netherlands Red Cross societies are joining efforts in this task.

A site has been offered by the city council of the Hague, in the immediate neighborhood of the British quarters, for the erection of work-shops, Young Men's Christian Association huts and the provision of football and cricket grounds. Following the example set in Switzerland, special care is to be devoted to training men for useful vocations. With a view to avoiding competition with native labor, in accordance with rules laid down by the authorities, the employment provided probably will take the form of constructing movable houses or cabins for use in Belgium after the war, and making furniture for the same purpose—work that is already occupying many Belgian interned soldiers and refugees.

To accustom the German prisoners to regular employment and give them a certain amount of confidence in the future, workshops are to be erected in the Wolfhezen camp. Raw materials are to be brought from Germany, from where the finished work will be exported in order to avoid competition with Netherlands workmen. According to present plans, some of the men will be put to work on the land, while students will be given facilities to continue their studies at Netherlands universities.
